Chestnuts: “This week in maths I did tricky times tables and in spellings I learnt new words like ‘happy, sad and crying’ ” - Jasmine

Sycamores: “This week we made some jars that the light shone through and we had to crack the codes to give to Santa Claus” - Sophie

Redwoods: “On Thursday evening we ‘lit up’ Newton Abbot with our grasshopper lanterns. Look on our school Facebook page to see the photos. We have been watching snippets of the film ‘Oliver’ and it has given us an insight into Victorian life” - Lexi

Whole School News

What a week it has been! 'Tinsel and Tea-towels' was a hit and I was particularly impressed by the singing from the whole school. A huge thanks to the parents and staff who supported the children through rehearsals and costume making!

If you don't already follow us on Facebook then please do, as we regularly share photos of learning and events. The lantern parade pictures are wonderful and capture a magical evening in the community.

Don't forget that next Thursday is our last day of term, and school ends at 2:00pm.
