This week in...

We are asking the children to reflect on their weekly learning.

Acorns and Oaks: 'I liked painting and getting my hands in the playdoh! We did counting this week.' Charlie

Chestnuts: 'This week I enjoyed playing Hit the Button in maths, I was really good! I also took part in mindfulness colouring and created a seahorse.' Ethan

Sycamores: 'We have been practising our handwriting and mine is getting much neater! Maths is getting harder but we are doing so well. We wrote our poems this week which are brilliant!' Lexie

Redwoods: 'We have been reading stories set in Victorian times which I enjoyed. In Science we have been learning about how animals adapt to survive in their habitats.' Lily C

Diary Dates

- Week beginning 30/9/19—
Children's CAP workshop.
- Week beginning 21st October— Half term. Returning to school on Monday 28th October.

Whole School News

Thank you to everyone who attended the CAP workshop, we are really looking forward to exploring this in each class and empowering the children to know how to prevent assault in its various forms. We have recently carried out a safeguarding audit which was extremely positive and highlighted the rigor of our approach to safeguarding the children. As a result of this you may see some slight changes in procedures which will be shared with you.

We are still in need of puzzles and board games for our rainy play time boxes. If you are able to donate anything please mark these for the attention of Mrs Yeo via the school office.

Have a wonderful weekend and we look forward to seeing you at the parent consultation meetings next week.
